MISS LEATHERMAN ENTERTAINS FRIDAY FOR CHARMING BRIDE-ELECT One of the most enjoyable and ar-season was that tendered on Friday afternoon by Miss Anne Leatherman ing young bride-elect, Miss Evelyn afternoon by Miss Anne Leatherman in special compilment to a charming young bride-elect, Miss Evelyn Rainer.

Whenever the handsome Leatherman home, on Union avenue, is the scene of a social affair the guests look forward to some unique scheme of decoration and they are never disappointed. On this occasion the little white "bird of love" gave the keynote to the decorations. The five chains from which the lights of the chandelier, with their beautiful shades, are hung, were wreathed in ferns and smilax and from the center light, suspended by invisite wires was a beautiful white love bird. At each place was the little love bird at each place was the little love bird place also was a bud vase holding aslited nuts and marking each place also was a bud vase holding asingle perfect bud, supported by Cupid. The name cards at the places were hand painted, picturing, a lovely bride. The place of the bride-elect was specially designated by a wedding cake, which, at the conclusion of the delicious and faultlessly served menu, was cut, first by Miss Rainer and then by the guests, revealing the wedding symbols hidden beneath it's beautifully decorated exterior.

Miss Leatherman wore a lovely French frock of blue taffeta, elaborated by a clever arrangement of gross grain ribbon. Mrs. Leatherman, who assisted her daughter in entertaining, was gowned in brown satin with a touch of fur, and Mrs. Hugh the card game, a yellow color motif the card game, a yellow col who assisted her daughter in enter-taining, was gowned in brown satin with a touch of fur, and Mrs. Hugh Lucas Fontaine, formerly Miss Mary Abbay Leatherman, was also charm-ingly gowned in brown satin. The honores, Miss Rainer, wore a Callot Daniel Grant, P. P. Williams, Waiter Lucas Fontaine, formerly Miss Mary Abbay Leatherman, was also charm-lingly gowned in brown satin. The honores, Miss Rainer, wore a Callot Lucas Fontaine, Cantago and Smith.

Removal Of Judge Who Scoffed At Idea Of Hell Ordered

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Oct. 8.-Removal of Judge Charles L. Long, of the probate court, or appointment of an associate judge who believes in hell, is demanded by the Rev. Thom-as A. McGovern, of the Holy Name

The priest's action followed dispo-sition of the Alexander case in pro-bate court when the five children of Robert O. Alexander, cotton broker and evangelist, of Charlotte, N. C., e awarded to the mother's custody on grounds that the father's religious beliefs made him unfit.

The unfitness was reported as based partially on Alexander's belief in hell. In his finding, Judge Long was reported as saying that belief in hell is out of date among modern churches and clung to only by the Catholics. To the latter part Father McGovern has taken strenuous objection.

Members of the Holy Name parish are backing Father McGovern in his

Comfort

Man a man, many a woman and many a child does not know what "Comfort" means. More than half are suffering from improperly fit shoes, or their effects. This fact was learned by Uncle Sam when examining men for the army; and it is proved daily by Zellner's, for of those prospective patrons who visit us for the first time over fifty per cent have been improperly fit. This condition is the result of a combination of factors-gnorance, incomplete stocks, etc., being the principal items, Zellner's does know how to fit. An experience of twenty years in manufacturing Shoes, coupled with the retailing of half a century, provides a shoe knowledge which, perhaps, has no parallel; and our tremendous stocks, marked in plain sizes, fit by a salesforce of experts held responsible for correct fit, put "Comfort" within the reach of all. Zellner's Shoes are made right, by the highest grade shoemakers of the world, and by being properly fitted not only feel right, but hold their shape, look right and wear right.

Our Doctor of Orthopedics, graduate of the New York School of Chiropody, will solve your foot and shoe troubles, and may be called in consultation without expense. Physicians are welcome to take advantage of this service, and the many cases they come in contact with may without hesitation be referred to us.

Your Coal Bin Should Decide The Choice of Your Stove

It's all well and good to say that you are going to purchase a baseburner—one which burns hard coal-but you know that hard coal is going to be scarce at any price this winter! Labor conditions, strikes, etc., have all had telling effects in this winter's production of hard coal. If your coal bin is going to be filled with soft coal, coke, screenings, wood or anything but hard coal, you'll want a stove that burns any kind of fuel. And now is the time to get it. We offer a large selection of stoves and ranges in all types and sizes, absolutely guaranteed to give the greatest volume of heat from a minimum amount of fuel. Buy now before a possible increase in price!
